L to r:Steve Sherman, Rob Downer, Terry Halida, Tom Korth, Tim Racette, George Blazej, Champion Brian Floen

Brian Floen is "back". The lefty increased his MSC title total to 7 by defeating the defending "PoY" Rob Downer, 226 to 213 in the title match. Floen was the leading qualifier. His scratch total of 2026 is a season high. He had an 802 in games 4, 5 & 6, which included a 299.

For Downer, another top 5 finish. He is looking for title #9. His scratch total of 1989 was the 2nd high season scratch total. With this finish, he increased his "PoY" total to 90. He beat Terry Halida 279 to 258 in the semi final to advance.

Terry is looking for title #3. Terry was 3rd high qualifier and defeated Steve Sherman to advance.

Sherman had his best finish to date. He won 2 ladder games before he met Halida. He emerged as the winner in the 1st ladder game and won a 9th and 10th frame roll off against Tim Racette.

Racette, a 3 time titlist, was 4th high qualifier and finishes in 5th. With this finish, he moves into 6th in the "PoY" race. With 6 events remaining, he can be a factor in the points race.

The other 2 ladder participants were Tom Korth and George Blazej. Both players were the victims of Sherman's 267 game. Tom was a strike short of winning the match, as he had 258. Tom is looking for title #9.

George has never won, but has been tough to beat. He has several top 5 finishes. He had a "300" in qualifying.
