Each MSC tournament is certified by the USBC

Dave Lutz won his first MSC title by defeating Ken Holets, 235 to 187. His previous high was a second at Flahertys. He also had a third place to his credit. Lutz started the title game with a six bagger. His only error was an open in the 9th. Lutz was the qualifying leader with 1745 pins. With this finish, he becomes the leader in the POY point standings.

Ken Holets is looking for his 3rd title. With this finish, he now has 8 seconds. This was his 1st casher of the season. Holets was second high qualifier and had to defeat a red hot player in the person of Dave Freeman. Holets shot a 263 to advance.

Dave Freeman took third. This finish puts him into second place in the Points standings. He is looking to add a second title to the one he won in August. Dave qualified in 5th. He won 3 ladder games to get to the semi final game.

Fourth place went to Jeff Baker, last month's winner. Jeff was third high qualifier. He lost a close match against Freeman by 9 pins. This finish puts him into the top 10 in the points race.

Roger Blad, SDS, finished in 5th place. Roger qualified in 4th place. In the match against Freeman, Roger had 2 opens. One of the opens was a 6-7 which "could have been". This match was the closest of all, a 215 to 211, won by Freeman. After this tournament, Roger is in 7th place in the points race. He leads that category in the Senior standings.

Also having a good tournament was John Stoebner, who is looking for his first title. This was his third sixth place finish. In the first ladder game, he had 5 single pin leaves that "could have been" .

The "stink hole" went to Greg White.
